

Do not attack NJ law in fact I wish it were stronger. I am tired of calls coming into my 2nd line which also serves as my fax line at all hours of the night. When my children are away it is frightening thinking it is them trying to contact me. Leave states to make their laws as strong if not stronger as it has always been in the past.